Outcome Number: 6

Question No: 259

Topic: Electoral Reports

Hansard Page: Written

Senator Cash asked:

Does the Office for Women prepare electorate level reports for Ministers?

If yes, what data is included in these reports? How often is this updated? Is this material publicly available? If not, why not? Please provide a copy of latest reports.

If electorate level reports are not prepared, why are they not prepared?

Answer:

The Office for Women does not prepare electorate level reports for Ministers.

Information on local constituencies may be prepared as briefing to support the Minister when attending events.
