Question:

How many public dental patients have been treated under the public dental waiting list blitz?

Answer:

The total number of additional public dental patients reported to have received treatment under the National Partnership Agreement on Treating More Public Dental Patients from 1 January 2013 to 31 December 2013 is 204,802. This figure does not include information from the Northern Territory, which has not yet provided its performance data to the Commonwealth.
