Outcome Number: 8

Question No: 580

Topic: Aged Care Facilities

Hansard Page: 27/02/2014 CA54

Senator Peris asked:

Have there been any applications to establish or build new aged care facilities in the Northern Territory, including information around the expansion of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Flexible Aged Care Programme.

Answer:

No new applications were received to establish or build new aged care facilities in the Northern Territory in the 2012-13 Aged Care Approvals Round.

Aged care places will be made available under the expansion of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Flexible Aged Care Programme to establish a new service at Mutitjulu in the Northern Territory.
