Senator: Di Natale, Richard

Question:

The FIFA report into the World Cup bids said that Australia's bid for 2022 World Cup contained "certain indications of potentially problematic conduct of specific individuals in the light of relevant FIFA Ethics rules". Has there been a formal response from the Government to this report?

Answer:

No.

The Australian Government has not been presented with the report nor any information in support of statements made in the summary report released by FIFA. The bid was conducted by, and the responsibility of, FIFA.
