Senator Claire Moore asked:

1. What is the progress on the development of national standards for perpetrator interventions?
2. Who is conducting this work?

Answer:

1. On 11 December 2015, COAG agreed the headline standards and supporting framework of the National Outcomes Standards for Perpetrator Interventions (National Outcome Standards). The Department is working with state and territory governments to develop implementation materials, including performance indicators.
2. The Commonwealth Department of Social Services is leading work with states and territory governments.
