

Closing the Gap reforms being delivered to remote Indigenous communities not included as priority RSD communities in Queensland?

Community	Program	Description	Provider	Funding 2010-11
Northern Peninsula Area	CDEP	CDEP to be delivered by the Northern Peninsula Area Regional Council in the following communities in the Northern Peninsula Area: New Mapoon, Injinoo, Umagico, Seisia and Bamaga. The Community Development Employment Projects program (CDEP) is an Australian Government funded initiative operating mainly in remote areas for unemployed Indigenous people. The program contributes to meeting the Government's commitment to halve the gap between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Australians by 2020. CDEP providers will work in partnership with Employment Service and Indigenous Employment Program providers. Working together to deliver integrated service at the local level means CDEP and Employment Service providers can offer a better range of employment and support services that lead to real jobs for Indigenous job seekers. Under the CDEP program, there are two main ways ("streams"). These streams are called "Work Readiness" and "Community Development". * Work Readiness Services - helps job seekers to develop their skills, improve their chances of getting a job, and move to work outside of the CDEP program. * Community Development - focuses on supporting and developing Indigenous communities and organisations.	Northern Peninsula Area Regional Council	$ 4,035,364.00
