Senator Cash asked:

Can you please provide an update on the Key Reform Projects that are being developed in the first phase of the National Plan 2011-13 including:

- Improving service delivery for women with disability;
- Risk assessments for the health sector
- Children exposed to domestic violence
- The transition of women to stability post-violence
- The national workforce agenda
- Community policing best practice for safe indigenous communities
- Indigenous community safety planning

Answer:

Key reform projects to inform service delivery improvements are continuing in consultation with state and territory governments and other stakeholders.
