Senator Cash asked:

With reference to the article in the Northern Territory News on 30 April 2013 regarding the misuse of departmental computers, can you clarify exactly who was involved and what action, if any, was taken by the department against the individuals involved?

Answer:

The subsequent article titled “Public Servants cleared on porno” published in the Northern Territory News on 4 May 2013, confirmed that the computers were not government-owned and that no government employees were implicated in this matter.
