Written Question on Notice

Senator Fierravanti-Wells asked:

Could the Department also explain Mr Daube's role in the allocation of research funding in the area of alcohol policy?

Answer:

Professor Daube is a member of the Australian National Preventive Health Agency (ANPHA) Research Committee, which comprises eight members who bring a wide range of research experience in preventive health and health promotion, including with respect to alcohol and tobacco abuse and obesity.

The Research Committee advises the ANPHA Chief Executive Officer on a range of matters.
