Senator Siewert asked:

How many young parents have been suspended because of noncompletion of the scheme?

Answer:

No participants in the Helping Young Parents scheme have been suspended from income support for non-completion. For the period 1 January 2012 to 28 June 2013, 505 participants in the Helping Young Parents measure have incurred income support suspensions for non-compliance. Almost all of these suspensions were incurred due to missing an interview with the Department of Human Services.
