Topic: Credit Cards

Senator Ludwig, Joe asked:

Since the change of Prime Minister on 14 September, 2015:

1. Provide a breakdown of any changes to employment classifications that have access to a corporate credit card.
2. Have there been any changes to action taken in the event that the corporate credit card is misused?
3. Have there been any changes to how corporate credit card use is monitored?
4. Have any instances of corporate credit card misuse have been discovered during the specified period? If so:
5. Please list staff classification and what the misuse was, and the action taken.
6. Have there been any changes to what action is taken to prevent corporate credit card misuse?
7. How many credit cards available to the Minister or their office? If so, please list by classification. Have there been any misuse of credit cards by the Minister or their office? Has any action been taken against the Minister or their office for credit card misuse? If so, list each occurrence, including the cost of the misuse.

Answer:

1. As at 29 January 2016, 2,573 employees have access to a corporate credit card (Managers 1,131 and Staff 1,442).
2. No. Australia Post's "Our Ethics" policy, details the standards of behaviour expected of everyone who works for or represents the Corporation and the disciplinary measures that will be taken in the event of a breach of standards. This includes referral of suspected or alleged criminal behaviour to its Security Group. Where evidence supports the allegation, the matter will be referred to the appropriate authorities or the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions.
3. No. Use is monitored through authorisation statements, monthly reporting and periodical audits.
- 4-5. No cases of alleged or proven criminal behaviour involving corporate credit cards have been reported to Australia Post's Security Group from 14 September 2015 to 29 January 2016.
6. No.
7. No credit cards are available to the Minister or their office.
