Answer:

1. The Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) provides a range of corporate support services to the Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner (OCeSC). This includes the OCeSC following the ACMA's guidance and protocols around internal social media usage. There have been no changes to the internal social media guidance since May 2016 Budget Estimates.
2. The OCeSC does not monitor usage of social media by staff.
3. Not applicable.
4. There are no current plans to commence monitoring usage of social media by staff.
5. The OCeSC has not conducted analysis of social media impacts on employee productivity and is therefore unable to comment.
6. There have been no changes to the external social media guidelines since May 2016 Budget Estimates.
