JACKIE O: Brooklyn obviously everything in news today has been about these terriers of Johnny Depp's, Pistol and Boo, and Barnaby Joyce has said that they should bugger off back to Hollywood otherwise they will be put down, and even...

KYLE SANDILANDS: [Interrupts] which I thought's disgraceful. Really, I thought as a Government Minister that's quite disgraceful. Like you know I'm not saying that the guy... he's done the wrong thing, Johnny Depp and his people or whatever it is, they should have declared it, they should have gone through the proper channels, they should have got them quarantined, but we just sound like a bunch of hillbilly redneck losers saying bugger off back to Hollywood or we'll euthanise your dogs. It's just too much.

JACKIE O: Well tell that to Barnaby Joyce.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Barnaby Joyce, he's on the phone now, hello.

BARNABY JOYCE: Kyle, how are you mate?

KYLE SANDILANDS: Good. Little bit overboard don't you think? Were you grandstanding here a bit? You and Johnny Depp having a big stand-off, or do you regret that choice of words?

BARNABY JOYCE: No I don't Kyle, that's the law. It's no different for Mr Depp than it is for me.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Yeah but why did you have to sound like such a hero on there, like making out that you're going to kill someone's dogs. A lot of dog lovers will be just hating your guts right now.

BARNABY JOYCE: Fair enough. That's fair enough Kyle, I can do that (*).

KYLE SANDILANDS: What?

BARNABY JOYCE: Kyle, that's the law mate. That's how it works. [Indistinct].

KYLE SANDILANDS: [Talks over] What the law is, what, you've got to act like an idiot and tell everyone you're going to kill someone's dogs? Is that the law is it?

BARNABY JOYCE: If we would have ended up with rabies in this country Kyle you'd have all your listeners completely up in arms. If we had leishmania come into this country your listeners would be up in arms. If we had leptospirosis come in. These disease Kyle are next door mate, they're not 1000 miles away, and they're definitely in the United States. We have laws...

KYLE SANDILANDS: Have you gone red yet Barnaby? Have you gone all red? You embarrassed about yourself?

BARNABY JOYCE: [Talks over, indistinct]

JACKIE O: Alright.

BARNABY JOYCE: You're a savage little man aren't you?

JACKIE O: We don't to, we don't need this to get so heated.

KYLE SANDILANDS: No, no, I'm not even a little man...

BARNABY JOYCE: [Talks over] you're a savage little man.

KYLE SANDILANDS: ...I'm 6 foot 1 Barnaby. Wake up to yourself. People don't like people talking about animals like that.

BARNABY JOYCE: Have a listen to this fellow.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Oh you're a [censored], hang up on Barnaby. What a wanker. See you later. What a loser.

JACKIE O: Oh we haven't had an interview like that in a while.

BARNABY JOYCE: What a loser. What a joke.

JACKIE O: Well that was heated. I wasn't expecting it to get that heated.

KYLE SANDILANDS: [Talks over] oh you're a funny little man... what an idiot. The guys a fool.

JACKIE O: You did... I get yes, I knew... your point was clear that he... it's not...

KYLE SANDILANDS: Yes and Barnaby just wanted to emb... he had all these little words down, he'd written them all down all the diseases that could come. That's not my point.

JACKIE O: No I know, and that's the thing.

KYLE SANDILANDS: My point was he sounds like an idiot saying to someone bugger off back to Hollywood or we'll kill your dogs. That's not cool Barnaby. I'm not arguing the point - the reason that you wanted the situation looked in to; justified. Sounding like a little ponce on there who thinks he's greater than the rest of us...

JACKIE O: Settle down.

KYLE SANDILANDS: ...is not what I want.

JACKIE O: I know but you're getting very very angry.

KYLE SANDILANDS: What's wrong with you Jackie? I'm very annoyed with the guy.

JACKIE O: I know, I know but...

KYLE SANDILANDS: Are you not annoyed with the guy?

JACKIE O: Yeah, I'm... I think his choice of words was wrong; bugger off to Hollywood or we'll put your dogs down I agree is the wrong way to put it.

KYLE SANDILANDS: It's just like an idiot.

JACKIE O: This has really hit a nerve with you more so than I think it has with me. I think you're very riled up about it.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Well I think... when my nerves hit I've noticed that it's like you've had half a packet of Valium. And I understand you have to do that, it's a balancing act.

JACKIE O: Yeah totally, I go the other way, it's like a set of scales. Well Barnaby won't be back on the show again, I can guarantee that.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Well Barnaby... I just can't... like the guy is just an idiot.

JACKIE O: Anyway.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Just a gerbil of a thing.

JACKIE O: Oh there's no need for that.

KYLE SANDILANDS: Yes there is... that's what I do. When I get pissed off that's how I speak. Too bad.
