Answer:

1. To be eligible for employment with TUSMA, a person must be an Australian citizen. This applies to both ongoing and non-ongoing employment. Employees are required to provide evidence of their Australian citizenship prior to commencing employment. The citizenship requirement will only be waived in exceptional circumstances and must be approved by the CEO, who may impose certain restrictions or conditions on their engagement (e.g. obtaining Australian citizenship within a prescribed timeframe). If the CEO decides to approve the engagement of a non-citizen, that person must have appropriate work rights/visa. Decisions to engage non-citizens are considered on a case by case basis and are at the discretion of the CEO.
2. No.
3. Evidence of Australian citizenship includes:
 - full Australian birth certificate and a form of photo ID if born before 20 August 1986
 - Australian citizenship certificate and a form of photo ID
 - Australian passport issued on or after 22 November 1984
 - full Australian birth certificate and a form of photo ID and evidence that at least one parent was an Australian citizen or permanent resident at the time of the child's birth if born on or after 20 August 1986.
4. Nil.
