Topic: INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS
Hansard Page: N/A
Question Date: 29 October 2014
Question Type: Written

Senator Waters asked:

Has the Department briefed the Environment Minister or his staff for any meetings or assistance with correspondence with the Institute of Public Affairs since this Government took office? If so, advise for each meeting - who was present, and which issues were they briefed on, and for each correspondence – which issues were raised.

Answer:

The Department has undertaken a search of its Parliamentary Workflow System and there is no record of the Department briefing the Minister or his staff for meetings with the Institute of Public Affairs. The search has not located any correspondence with the Institute.
