REFERENCE: Question on Notice (Hansard, 31 May 2017, page 95)

QUESTION No.: BI-3

Senator XENOPHON: Yes, sure. So how many applications involving input dumping has the commission received?

Mr Seymour: In my time there have been some questions that might relate to input dumping but no applications, as far as I know. If you like I could take that on notice and bring you back an answer.

Senator XENOPHON: Yes.

ANSWER

The Anti-Dumping Commission, as far as it is aware, has received three applications for the imposition of dumping duties which, over the course of the investigation, have raised issues that may be characterised as ‘input dumping’.
