Answer:

4234. Since Budget Estimates in June 2014, the ACNC has printed eight documents, and a total of 22,500 copies. These eight different documents (except the ACNC Annual Report 2013-14) were developed and printed to help registered charities meet their statutory obligations under the ACNC Act. These documents are key components of the ACNC Charity Pack, which is sent to newly registered charities, and were also distributed to the 3,500 charities that registered for the Ask ACNC sessions held in 32 locations across Australia. These publications are also taken to sector forums and seminars, and are available to registered charities on request.

a) All ACNC publications are published on our website, www.acnc.gov.au.

4235. The ACNC uses a number of services from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) via a memorandum of understanding, including access to a print procurement panel for external printing.

More information about the printing panel can be found in the ATO's response to SBT 2042 - 2043.

a) Snap; Print Media Group; Union Offset; and New Millennium Print were used during this period.
