The process for establishing all panels in the ABS is in accordance with the Commonwealth Procurement Rules and as such all ABS staff that are involved in the process are required to declare any and all conflicts of interest whether they be actual or perceived. If an ABS staff member had a conflict of interest financial or otherwise they would be removed from the process entirely.

The process for establishing all panels in the ABS is in accordance with the Commonwealth Procurement Rules and as such Ministerial staff is not involved in the establishment of the panels. All panellist submissions are assessed against a pre-defined criteria and the strength of their response to requirements is the sole factor in whether they are successful in being placed on an ABS panel.
