

Tim Harcourt

February 13 at 2:59pm · Twitter ·

Additional Estimates 2014-15
Education and Employment Committee
Document number: 6
Date and time: 26/2 3:10PM
Tabled by: SENATOR MCKENZIE

<http://t.co/Q7bW88pugw>

Economists' Statement on Commonwealth Budgetary and Economic Priorities | The Australia Institute

The austere measures contained in the proposed Commonwealth budget have been justified by fears that Australia's public debt is expanding rapidly and dangerously; and must be arrested through a dramatic change in fiscal policy. These fears are misplaced.

TAI.ORG.AU

Share · @TimHarcourt on Twitter

Neil Hart likes this.

Tim Harcourt

@TimHarcourt

Following

Joe Hockey was on @leighsales @abc730 but is it time 4 Malcolm Turnbull as Treasurer? @profholden @UNSWbusiness theconversation.com/is-it-time-for...

 The Conversation

Is it time for Treasurer Malcolm Turnbull?

In the wake of Monday's attempted Liberal leadership spill, Australian Prime Minister Tony Abbott clearly needs to do something to shore up support. He's been offered all manner of unsolicited advice...

View on web

5:54 PM - 10 Feb 2015

Tim Harcourt
@TimHarcourt

Following

So was it #ImStickingWithTony or
#ImStickingitupTony? @profholden

FAVORITES

3

2:27 PM - 8 Feb 2015

Reply to @TimHarcourt @profholden

Melbourne Trends

#4Corners #qanda #AmplifyLIVE #GreyhoundRacing Tony Jones West Indies Malcolm
#CWC15 Melbourne Greg Sheridan

Tim Harcourt

Home / About / Governance / CEDA Council on Economic Policy / Tim Harcourt

> About

- > A history of CEDA
- > CEDA's founder: Sir Douglas Berry Copland
- > Our people
 - > Careers at CEDA
- > Governance
 - > Patrons
 - > Board of Governors
 - > Board of Directors
 - > CEDA Council on Economic Policy
 - > State Advisory Councils
 - > Annual reports
- > International network

SHARE IT

Tim Harcourt is a member of the CEDA Council on Economic Policy, which comprises some of Australia's best and brightest policy minds, and guides CEDA's research agenda.

Tim Harcourt, The Airport Economist, is the JW Nevile Fellow in Economics at the Australian School of Business at the University of New South Wales (UNSW). Tim was also for over a decade the first chief economist of the Australian Trade Commission (Austrade).

Tim is currently the inaugural Adviser-Global Engagement to the Hon. Jay Weatherill, MP, the Premier of South Australia a position he holds on a part-time basis.

Tim is also an Expert Panel Member, Minimum Wage Review, for the Fair Work Commission.

Tim teaches International Business at the Australian School of Business at UNSW, in the AGSM MBA program in Asia and Latin America with a focus on China, India, ASEAN, Brazil, Chile, Colombia and other emerging markets. Tim is a Visiting Professor at the Pontificia Universidad Catolica (PUC) in Chile.

Tim is an active commentator in the Australian and international media on economic and trade issues and appears regularly on TV and radio shows including on ABC Breakfast, ABC Weekend Breakfast, ABC Lateline, The Business, The World, on Sky News, Sky Business News, Sunrise, Kochie's Business Builders, Bloomberg, CCTV, BBC and CNBC Asia.

Tim also writes for a number of major publications including The Australian Financial Review, The Sydney Morning Herald, The Age, Business Review Weekly, The Australian, The Advertiser, The Herald Sun, The West Australian, The Courier Mail, The OECD Observer, The Globalist, The National Times, The Drum, The Conversation, The Economic Times and various websites and blogs.

Tim has been a research officer/advocate with the Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU), a role first held by Bob Hawke in the 1950s and 1960s, and has worked as an international economist for the Reserve Bank of Australia, the Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission (now the Fair Work Commission) and has international experience in the corporate sector in the UK, USA and Israel.

Tim was educated at the University of Adelaide, the University of Minnesota and Harvard University.

Tim is the author of six books on the international economy. His best known book, The Airport Economist, is a business bestseller and has been translated into several languages around Asia.

View full list of CCEP members

TRADING PLACES

VIDEO

THE PRESS CLUB

GALLERY

UPCOMING EVENTS

CONTACT

About Tim

Tim Harcourt, The Airport Economist, is the J.W. Neville Fellow in Economics at the Australian School of Business at the University of New South Wales (UNSW). Tim was also for over a decade the first chief economist of the Australian Trade Commission (Austrade).

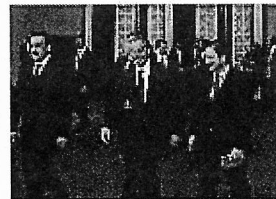

Tim is currently the inaugural Adviser-Global Engagement to the Hon Jay Weatherill, MP, the Premier of South Australia a position he holds on a part-time basis.

Tim is also an Expert Panel Member, Minimum Wage Review, for the Fair Work Commission.

Tim teaches International Business at the Australian School of Business at UNSW, in the AGSM MBA programme in Asia and Latin America with a focus on China, India, ASEAN, Brazil, Chile, Colombia and other emerging markets. Tim is a Visiting Professor at the Pontificia Universidad Católica (PUC) in Chile.

Tim is an active commentator in the Australian and international media on economic and trade issues and appears regularly on TV and radio shows including on ABC

SHARE

Tim Harcourt

J.W. Nevile Fellow

Bachelor of Economics (Honours) University of Adelaide, 1987 | Master of Arts, University of Minnesota, 1991 | Harvard Trade Union Program, Harvard University, 1999

+61 2 9385 3816

tim.harcourt@unsw.edu.au

Room 438, UNSW Business School building - Ref E12

Expertise

Tim is known as 'The Airport Economist' and is the author of seven books on the international economy including: The Airport Economist, Trading Places, Great Southern Lands – building ties between Australia & Brazil and Latin Lessons. He is currently writing a history on the internationalisation of the Australian economy and a new book titled Footnominics on the economics of sport.

Bio

Publications & Research

Teaching & Supervision

Grants

Engagement

About Tim

Tim Harcourt is the J.W.Nevile Fellow in Economics at the UNSW Australia Business School.

Tim also teaches International Business strategy in Asia and Latin America at the AGSM @ UNSW Business School and is a visiting Professor at the Pontificia Universidad Catolica (PUC) in Chile.

A prolific author and globetrotter, Tim has visited over 58 countries in the past five years alone.

Tim is an active TV economics commentator in the Australian, Asian and international media on economic and trade issues

Tim was Chief Economist of the Australian Trade Commission (Austrade) for over a decade and also worked for the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) and the Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) and in the corporate sector internationally.

Tim is also the Adviser – International Engagement to the Premier of South Australia, Hon Jay Weatherill, MP and Expert Panel Member – Minimum Wage and Superannuation Funds review, for the Fair Work Commission.

Tim was educated at the University of Adelaide, the University of Minnesota and Harvard University (and by his own students!)

His best known book The Airport Economist is an international business bestseller and has been translated into several languages and TV Projects around Asia.

It's available in all good bookshops including airport bookshops and online!

www.theairporteconomist.com

Tweets

Follow

 Tim Harcourt
@TimHarcourt
fb.me/72715328q

17 Feb

 Tim Harcourt
@TimHarcourt

17 Feb

Thanks @mjrowland68 for gr8 interview on Cricketnomics - Economics of @cricketworldcup @UNSWbusiness @BreakfastNews #CricketWorldCup

 Aus Brit Chamber
@BritishChamber

17 Feb

@TimHarcourt could you please dm your email? Opportunity for speaking gig.
Retweeted by Tim Harcourt

Expand

 Jenn dePaula
@mixtusmedia

17 Feb

@TimHarcourt Appreciate the follow! Look forward to connecting :)
Retweeted by Tim Harcourt

Expand

 Tim Harcourt
@TimHarcourt

17 Feb

Tweet to @TimHarcourt

FOLLOW ME ON

