Senator Lines, Sue provided in writing

School funding from 2018 - briefing and modelling

Question

Has the Department briefed the Minister on any options for school funding models post 2018? When did these briefings occur?

Has the Minister asked the Department to prepare any school funding model options post 2018? When was the request made? What model has been requested?

Has the Department briefed the Minister on the consequences that a flat CPI + population funding model would have for equity in student resourcing across the country? Both between schools and between states and sectors?

Answer

The department regularly briefs the Minister for Education and Training on matters relating to his portfolio.
