Dear Secretary

Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) – Additional Estimates Hearing 10 February 2016

I am writing in relation to ASQA's appearance before the Education and Employment - Legislation Committee's 2015-16 Additional Budget Estimates hearing on Wednesday 10 February 2016.

I wish to correct information inadvertently presented in evidence to the Committee in response to questions from Senator Carr (page 70 of Hansard refers) relating to the registration status of the training provider Australian Business Skills (trading as Amstar Learning).

I had stated at the hearing that Australian Business Skills was no longer registered. This however was incorrect and the provider is currently registered. Further, I can confirm that Australian Business Skills is not currently an approved VET FEE-HELP provider.

It would be appreciated if you could draw this fact to the attention of the Committee. I apologise for any inconvenience caused by this inadvertent oversight.

If you require further information or assistance in relation to this matter, please contact Mr Aaron Campbell on (03) 8613 3947 or by email to: aaron.campbell@asqa.gov.au

Yours sincerely
