Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ17-000141

Senator Carr, Kim provided in writing

ARC - Australian Research Integrity Committee

Question

1. Who are the members of the Australian Research Integrity Committee?
2. When do their terms expire?
3. On what dates were they appointed, and by who?

Answer

The Australian Research Council (ARC) has provided the following response.

1. The members of the Australian Research Integrity Committee (ARIC) are:
 - Mr Ron Brent (Chair)
 - Dr Kerry Breen, AM
 - Emeritus Professor Sheila Shaver
 - Ms Julie Hamblin.
2. The appointment terms of the ARIC members expire on 31 December 2019.
3. The members of ARIC were appointed jointly by the CEOs of the ARC and the National Health and Medical Research Council for an initial three-year term commencing on 1 January 2011. They have been subsequently reappointed for two additional three-year terms (commencing on 1 January 2014 and 1 January 2017).
