Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ17-000387

Senator Hanson-Young, Sarah provided in writing.

Increasing fees for 'flagship' courses

Question

What reaction have you had from higher education providers in relation to the possibility of increasing fees for 'flagship' courses? What sort of courses do you think could increase fees under the proposal?

Answer

Provider submissions in response to the Government's policy options paper, including comments on possible 'flagship' courses, are available from the Department of Education and Training's website:
