Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ17-000480

Senator Collins, Jacinta provided in writing.

Inbuilt review

Question

On 2 December 2013 – Former Minister for Education, the Hon Christopher Pyne, said “in the model there is an inbuilt review of course in 2015 to make sure that that model is operating effectively and we will adopt that.” Was this review conducted?

- What elements of the SRS were reviewed?
- What were the findings of the review?

Answer

The National Education Reform Agreement (NERA) sets out arrangements for ongoing review of different aspects of the NERA and bilateral agreements. Not all states and territories are signatories to the NERA or have bilateral agreements in place.

The Department of Education and Training has reviewed and provided advice on a range of model settings to inform deliberations of Government.
