Senator O'Neill, Deborah asked on 04 June 2015, Proof Hansard page 108

Projections from 2012 to 2024 funding scenarios

Question

Senator O'NEILL: When you look at the projection from 2012 to 2024 to calculate the almost $30 billion difference between the two funding scenarios, you would have to necessitate the government to have the capacity to compare the two different policy scenarios for school funding.

Mr Cook: I do not know how Treasury calculated the data.

Senator O'NEILL: Can you take that one on notice?

Mr Cook: I am happy to take it on notice but we will have to ask Treasury what they have done. It is a

Treasury document, as I think the senator has indicated.

Answer
