Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ17-000673

Senator Hanson-Young, Sarah asked on 01 June 2017, Proof Hansard page 70

Gap for States to get to 100% of the SRS

Question

Do you have a sense of how much extra funding states will have to contribute to ensure they get to 100% of the SRS?

Answer

It is not possible to estimate or project with any certainty the current level of state funding. States are currently only required to report actual state funding on My School. Funding levels for 2017 will not be available until early 2019.

The department therefore cannot provide with accuracy the extra funding states will have to contribute at this time.
