Department of Education Question No. ED0029_14

Senator Carr provided in writing.

Question

Staff on fixed-term contracts

How many staff are on fixed term contracts? How many were on fixed-term contracts prior to the election in September?

Answer

On 30 November 2013 the Department of Education had 35 non-ongoing employees.

Note: The information is based on interim arrangements pending finalisation of Machinery of Government (MoG) changes. Employees from corporate functions are mapped to the Department of Education and employees in the State Network are mapped to Department of Employment as part of these arrangements. Employee numbers will vary in future as MoG changes are settled across the four affected departments.

On 6 September 2013 the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations had 65 non-ongoing employees.
