Department of Education Question No. ED0571_15

Senator Wright provided in writing.

Question

School visits - South Australia

How many schools has the Minister visited in South Australia in the same time period? How many were government and non-government and how many were held in conjunction with press conferences or media activity?

Answer

Data on all school visits by the Minister for Education is not held centrally by the department.

As part of his role as Minister for Education, the Hon Christopher Pyne MP has visited a number of schools in South Australia from both the government and non-government sectors.
