Department of Education Question No. ED0691_15

Senator Carr provided in writing.

Question

Department's media function

Please provide an update on the external review of the department's media function.

Answer

The Review undertaken by Reputation Pty Ltd included an assessment of the department's communications functions, and communication staff capabilities and resources following the creation of the Department of Education on 18 September 2013 as a result of machinery of government changes. The Review recommended a number of improvements and informed thinking and planning for communication effort across the department. The final report was delivered to the department on 14 April 2014.
