On 25 November this year you plan to hold a launch of the results of the inaugural year of the standardised gender reporting. How much does it cost to attend the launch?..... Ms Conway: The invitation is on our website. I am sorry: the figures are on that invitation, I just do not have a copy of it with me here. CHAIR: All right. Could you just take that on notice? EM1567_15	McKenzie, Bridget	1-109-2	Agency - Workplace Gender Equality Agency	WGEA - Launch attendance	CHAIR: Aside from the ambassadors, who is coming to dinner? Ms Conway: Some people who have supported us. I do not have the list. CHAIR: Could you table the list.
EM1568_15	McKenzie, Bridget	1-110-2	Agency - Workplace Gender Equality Agency	WGEA - Gender difference figure	CHAIR: We have pulled out the calculator here. So it is 12 per cent. Nowhere near 50 per cent, is it? Can you also give us that gender difference figure in payroll as well as FTEs? Ms Conway: I do not have that information here. CHAIR: On notice. That would be great if you could break down your payroll according to gender too, please. What steps are you taking to improve gender equality in the agency?
EM1569_15	McKenzie, Bridget	1-112-2	Agency - Workplace Gender Equality Agency	WGEA - Overseas research	Ms Conway: What our discussions with employers tell us is that they acknowledge that in their organisations there is gender bias that is impacting on pay and performance decisions. Ms Wood: Yes, we can take that on notice.
EM1573_15	Lines, Sue	1-128-2	Outcome 1 - Employment	Gender/Wage Gap - comparable countries	Senator LINES: Where do we sit in relation to other countries? I was reading a report that said that in the UK wages had dropped to low levels, but it did not necessarily ascribe that to gender. Ms Parker: We do not have that with us but we can take it on notice. ..... Senator LINES: Right. Okay. Given that this gender gap, this wage gap, is almost entrenched-I do not really want to say that word but it has been around for such a long time and is remaining reasonably other comparable countries where that pay gap has been addressed? Ms Parker: Again, we can take that on notice. Ms Wood: In the context of looking at the reporting framework, we have looked at other countries that have different initiatives internationally that have looked at similar kinds of approaches-industry-level get that kind of focus at the workplace level. So there are different models around where people have tried different things, but actually being able to measure the impact of that can be quite hard. Senator LINES: Why is that hard? Ms Wood: Measuring the impact of an individual initiative in the context of a whole economy- Senator LINES: I see. Ms Wood: the impact can be hard to identify and to isolate. But we can certainly take it on notice to provide a bit more background on that.
EM1574_15	Cameron, Doug	1-5-2	Cross Portfolio	Position/structure changes in the Department	Ms Leon: There has not been any significant restructure or change to numbers, but I would have to check during the day and get back to you as to whether there have been any other movements within the Department? Senator CAMERON: Could you on notice provide us any details of other changes that the minister may not have indicated this morning. Ms Leon: Yes. EM1575_15	Cameron, Doug	1-6-2	Cross Portfolio	Shared Service Centre MoUs with agencies	Senator CAMERON: That is interesting. Could you then provide us details and table the MoUs? EM1576_15	Ludwig, Joe	1-7-2	Cross Portfolio	Heads of agreement	Senator LUDWIG: Is that in the MoU or is that a separate agreement? EM1580_15	Cameron, Doug	1-9-2	Cross Portfolio	Cost of redundancies	Ms Rundle: Sixty-six employees were offered and accepted voluntary redundancies in late 2013-14. That was around June of this year, and they exited the department around that time.  Senator CAMERON: What was the cost of those redundancies?  Ms Rundle: I would need to check the average cost. I would not be able to, of course, disclose individual costs.  Senator CAMERON: I am not looking for an average cost. I am looking for a total cost.  Ms Rundle: Of course. I am sorry, I do not have that with me now.  Senator CAMERON: Can you take that on notice, please.  Ms Rundle: Yes.
EM1581_15	Cameron, Doug	1-10-2	Cross Portfolio	MO relief staffing	Ms Rundle: From the list I have with me here, it looks like they were all Canberra. Ms Leon: In relation to having a lot of staff placed in the office, we may be able to alleviate you of all of those questions by just providing you with the list and number of days. That might save us all from  Senator CAMERON: If you provide that we will have a look at it, check against the questions on notice and we will not put anything in that we do not need to.
EM1582_15	McKenzie, Bridget	1-11-2	Cross Portfolio	Questions on Notice	CHAIR: Let us keep this collaborative work ethic going throughout the day. I have a couple of questions. Minister and departmental secretary, congratulations on your QWON record and thank you for re  the five years previous?  Senator CAMERON: The collaboration just collapsed.  CHAIR: I have the call.  Ms Leon: It is a long table, Chair. I can table it if you wish.  CHAIR: What is the take-home message?  Senator Abetz: I can say that since I became minister and I can say that since Ms Leon became secretary, or I can say that since both of us came to the task, for supplementary budget estimates 2013-14  estimates 2013-14 it is 99.5 per cent and for the 2014-15 budget 100 per cent were tabled by the due date. We then go through the five previous years to which you refer. The highest achieved was 76 p  10.  CHAIR: Maybe we could just table that.  Senator Abetz: The worst was 2010-11, where zero were tabled by the due date.  CHAIR: Zero! That is quite a large discrepancy. There is quite a significant difference, given that, I am assuming, we have not completely turned over an entire department or workforce. Was it more that  weight of the numbers of questions on notice or was it the technical aspects of the questions on notice? Why is there such a large difference?  Senator Abetz: A manic minister.  Ms Leon: I was not the secretary of the department then, Chair.  Senator CAMERON: I do not think you should reflect on a minister like that, Senator Abetz.  Senator Abetz: Let me be quite open here. As a senator, especially in certain other areas, I was constantly frustrated with not getting answers back on time or the answers being deliberately dropped on  Conroy was the expert at doing that. When I became minister, I sought to ensure that, as far as was possible, the department and the agencies would provide answers. I confess that I have personally dri  The department and agencies have been exceptionally cooperative.  CHAIR: And the results speak for themselves. Is there any data on when the department provided the answers to the previous minister?  Ms Leon: I do not have that with me.  Senator CAMERON: What were the qualifications of the individual?
EM1583_15	Cameron, Doug	1-14-2	Cross Portfolio	CPM Reviews	Ms Rundle: I would need to take that on notice. I can recall that he was well qualified for the job, but I cannot recall the qualifications in total.  Senator CAMERON: Sure. I would like to see that. How long did the investigation take?  Ms Rundle: If you are looking for an exact date, I would need to take that on notice. I might ask during the session break for you.  .....  Senator CAMERON: Was it hourly?  Ms Rundle: I would need to check whether his fee was based on an hourly rate. I do have the total cost of the investigation. I would need to check that for you.  .....  Senator CAMERON: Everybody wants to tell me about what the total cost is, but just wait a minute: was it a fixed-price contract or was it an hourly rate? How was it established how the payment would  that.
EM1584_15	Cameron, Doug	1-14-3	Cross Portfolio	CPM Review	Senator CAMERON: Obviously, there was a report provided to the department. Can that report be tabled?  Ms Leon: I will take it on notice. There may well be material that needs to be redacted because it goes to particular people. I would also need to consider whether there is material that reveals the invest  that I would not necessarily want to put into the public domain. But I am happy to take that on notice.

EM1585_15	Lines, Sue	1-15-2	Cross Portfolio	Information provided to staff regarding investigation	Senator LINES: So you met with them as a group. Did you provide any written information? Ms Rundle: I would need to check. We did not at the time of explaining that we were going to undertake the investigation. I do recall the investigator did provide some material to them prior to interview. Senator LINES: In that first group meeting, which was an information meeting, was CPM there? Ms Rundle: No. Senator LINES: If there is written material, can you make that available to the committee? Ms Rundle: Again, I would need to check whether any personal information was there. We will need to take that on notice. ...Cont. pg 16 Senator LINES: You said earlier that you believe that CPM provided people with written documentation about their rights. EM1586_15	O'Sullivan, Barry	1-18-2	Agency - Fair Work Commission	FWC - conflict of interest	Senator O'SULLIVAN: .....I imagine if an industry member feels conflicted they have a due process. I see the act and it says they have an obligation. But do they go to the front office? Do they register this with the president? How is it that they discharge their legislative obligation to declare, and where and how is that conflict recorded? Ms O'Neill: I would have to take the details of that on notice. There is not a form, for example, or a template in place. I understand that is a matter communicated directly from the relevant member-if that would arise-directly with the President. But I would have to take the detail-
EM1587_15	O'Sullivan, Barry	1-19-2	Agency - Fair Work Commission	FWC - Discharging obligation	Senator O'SULLIVAN: My questions now are for to take on notice. Could you provide us first with any written processes and provide copies of any of the documents that are involved in the due process of discharging an obligation? Secondly, can you exhaust any data information that has been collated or needs to be collated that will set out information regarding declarations of conflicts or potential conflicts including, but not limited to, the names of those who have been made; by who and to whom they have been made; and the details of the potential conflicts, sufficient for the committee to be able to make an assessment, in a general sense, of what the potential conflicts are? Ms O'Neill: I will take that on notice. .... Senator O'SULLIVAN: In the course of this day, so as to allow colleagues to pursue this question further, is there any prospect that we could get a snappy call and a snapshot of what this very important question is not aware of? But you may be able to do due diligence with your people. Ms O'Neill: I think it is unlikely, because I would want to speak to the president about it. I am not sure of her availability this morning. I am happy to take it on notice and answer promptly. Senator O'SULLIVAN: Let me tell you, Ms O'Neill, there are any number of other people who could help you because these part-time industry members will know automatically, surely, what the process is. You will be able to tell you, 'We go and fill a registrar. We put the details down and we write.' It is not a question you can answer. Because you are unable to help us with due process, I am probably not in a position to take that on notice. Ms O'Neill: How about I do my best during the break, and if I am able to I will. But I would want to speak to the president. Senator O'SULLIVAN: At this end of the table, that is all we expect. I really appreciate the offer. CHAIR: Thank you very much. Senator Cameron. Senator CAMERON: Can I make a clarification on this? I am not sure what is being asked here other than that Ms O'Neill may have to stay around all day to get access to a document, and then she may come back and take that on notice and we just move on, as we normally do? Senator Abetz: I think the landing we came to is that we are about to have morning tea and certain best endeavours will be engaged in. When we return a report will be given of the outcome of those best endeavours. Senator CAMERON: Okay, so the witness does not have to stay. Senator O'SULLIVAN: That was not my intention. CHAIR: Senators still have questions. So we will suspend and come back in 15 minutes. .... Senator Abetz: I request that Senator O'Sullivan be advised that we have some information for him. Best endeavours did prove to be fruitful during the morning tea adjournment.

In that period there were 6,754 applications lodged for approval. Senator CAMERON: So that is financial year 2013-14? Ms Clarke: Yes. Senator CAMERON: So you cannot just break down the calendar year 2014? Ms Clarke: We can, and I could take that on notice. Senator CAMERON: Could you give me that, please? Ms Clarke: Yes. Senator CAMERON: Can you also give me the number of agreements finalised between 7 September last year and 2 September this year? Senator CAMERON: Do you have any idea how many workers were party to those agreements for the financial year?

The Department of Employment keeps more substantial data on enterprise agreements and have their workplace agreement database that we provide them, and they compile that data. Senator Abetz: Why don't we take that question on notice for the department and then, when people read through the Hansard, that will hopefully alert the department to answer that for you on notice? Senator CAMERON: Ms O'Neill, do you also have a database of agreements? Ms O'Neill: We do in the sense of we have all agreements that are approved by the tribunal available on our website. Senator CAMERON: It has been some time since I have done it, but you used to have the number of workers covered in the agreement or submissions on the numbers. Ms O'Neill: That is not my recollection. It is certainly not something that is collected in our database. I am not quite sure how that worked. Senator CAMERON: Can you have the department to take that question on notice?

I will take this on notice if you would like, Senator. I am not certain that our case management system would enable such matters to be entered on notice. Senator CAMERON: I would require an analysis of every dispute notified to ascertain precisely the basis upon which it is entered on notice.

In the first six months-so, to 30 June-343 applications were lodged. Senator CAMERON: Can you break that down by how many each month? Ms O'Neill: I can but I would have to take that piece on notice. Senator CAMERON: Are processes in place to deal with the bullying claims? Ms O'Neill: They certainly are. Senator CAMERON: Has there been any concern about how the claims are being dealt with within the commission? Ms O'Neill: You mean raised, for example, by external parties? Senator CAMERON: Yes. Ms O'Neill: Not to my knowledge. EM1597_15	Cameron, Doug	1-42-2	Agency - Fair Work Ombudsman	FWO - Information provided by Department of Immigration	Senator CAMERON: This information was provided to you by the department of immigration, who said, 'there should be visa holders there. There are still opportunities to improve the- Senator CAMERON: How old is the data? Mr Campbell: I could take that on notice for you, but it is aged. There is an opportunity for us to improve the timeliness of the information that is provided by the department. Senator CAMERON: So there could be roughly 100,000 457 visa holders. If your sample shows 338 have gone missing, there could be 20,000 across the country and you do not know where they are. Senator Abetz: You are once again using a term that has been specifically rejected. These visa holders are not missing. Senator CAMERON: Well, where are they? Senator Abetz: You have been told that there will be a multiplicity with other employers back in their home country, where they came from, for whatever reason, that their visa has expired and therefore imagine there may be other reasons as well. But to say that they are missing is incorrect. Senator CAMERON: I do not know whether you have really enlightened me at all on this. You made some speculation. Senator Abetz: I think it is beyond anybody to seek to enlighten you, Senator, and I would never claim to have that capacity. Mr Campbell: Senator, if I can give you another example. Take the visa out of this. If we go to a workplace to find an individual that we might have had some contact with three months ago and get there - employ of the employer, that does not mean the employee is missing; it just means they are no longer in the employ of the employer. Senator CAMERON: But this is a much different proposition. There are legal obligations on the employer and legal obligations on the employee. The 457 visa is issued for that employer to employ an employee. Mr Campbell: An employee is able to change sponsor. These are questions that are better answered by the department of immigration, but an employee can change sponsor. Senator CAMERON: So when you were dealing with the department of immigration on this and they gave you the list of names of individuals and employers, did they have a list that said, 'This individual is missing'? Mr Campbell: Yes. Senator CAMERON: So why wouldn't the department of immigration know that that employee was no longer there? Mr Campbell: They may well have at the point in time that their report was generated, but by the time it gets to us time has lapsed, so therefore things change.
EM1598_15	Cameron, Doug	1-43-2	Agency - Fair Work Ombudsman	FWO - Provide details of the examples found in data	Senator CAMERON: Unable to locate sponsor. 76. How does that work? Mr Campbell: It might be that the business is no longer trading or that it was a contractor on a site somewhere. There are a range of reasons, and I am happy to give you some more examples on notice - at the moment, other than the data you have got. Senator CAMERON: So the sponsor is the legal body that employs the 457 worker. Have you found 457 workers with no sponsors? Mr Campbell: There can be a point where a visa holder is no longer in the employ of a sponsor, but they have a period of time in which they need to find another sponsor before their working visa comes up. Senator CAMERON: But that is a different thing. This says that you cannot locate the sponsor. If someone moves from one sponsor to another, the sponsor does not disappear; the sponsor is still there. Mr Campbell: Yes, but the sponsor does not disappear. So what has happened to these 76 sponsors? Senator Abetz: He has taken that on notice. Mr Campbell: I just want to try to round out our role in this space. We monitor these circumstances, these workplaces. Where we find an issue-say that the employee is no longer in the employ of the sponsor - the department of immigration, which has overall responsibility for the migration scheme. So they then action this information. Senator CAMERON: I assume the department will be listening in. CHAIR: Questions on notice for the department of immigration are due on 31 October. Senator CAMERON: I suppose they are back again next week sometime, so we will deal with that. Given the nominated position concerns, this is something that has had a fair bit of controversy-people concerned about labourers. What kind of thing were you finding? Mr Campbell: That is one example. Senator CAMERON: Can you provide details of the examples that you found, on notice? Senator Abetz: Do you want all of them or just a random sample? Could you then, on notice, provide details of how the analysis of a company-particularly a mining company, because that is what I am talking about-would be done and what existing legislation and regulation. What weight would they give that legislation and regulation when it brings someone over? Would that legislation and regulation disappear or would aspects of it come into play? .... cont pg. 51 Senator CAMERON: Ms Parker has very kindly agreed to take on notice my question about some of the details of how the analysis would be worked through on an industry coming in, such as the mining industry. This, but I am not sure, Ms Parker, whether you would be consulting with Ms Skippington on this. Ms Parker: I think I gave it to her, didn't I? Senator Abetz: It would be their responsibility. Senator CAMERON: That is all I wanted to hear. Ms Skippington will do the work and report back. Ms Skippington: If I can just confirm this, because the question I believe you asked was about entry into the scheme. It is the commission that has the authority to make that decision. We are responsible for the scheme, but the commission is still working through any processes that it might want to decide to make to that. So I can only answer your questions at this point in time about what we would be considering as we work through that. Senator RUSTON: I was more thinking about the discretion around what kinds of activities are acceptable and what the people who are providing those activities need to do to satisfy you that they have done what they say they are going to deliver. Mr Watson: I would probably have to provide on notice the full detail of the qualifications of the people

EM1603_15	Cameron, Doug	1-62-2	Agency - Fair Work Building & Construction	FWBC - Correspondence with other agencies	Senator CAMERON: Can you then provide on notice all correspondence that you have had with any agency in relation to the involvement of motorcycle gangs and construction industry union officials Senator Abetz: That could very well prejudice all sorts of inquiries by a whole host of agencies, so I would countenance very strongly against that occurring
EM1604_15	Ruston, Anne	1-105-2	Agency - Asbestos Safety & Eradication Agency	ASEA - Grant	Senator RUSTON: Can I find online, say, a copy of your grant guidelines? Mr Tighe: Yes, you can. I could provide to you with the details of that grant and what the acquittal was and what their requirements are to meet the terms of reference
EM1605_15	Ruston, Anne	1-133-2	Outcome 1 - Employment	Breakdown of casual or permanent	Senator LINES: Okay. If you do not have it here, can you perhaps take this on notice: of the 353 long-term mature unemployed that have got jobs, do you have a breakdown of whether they are casual or permanent?
EM1606_15	McKenzie, Bridget	1-109-3	Agency - Workplace Gender Equality Agency	Gender Bias	CHAIR: It is just the only way you can be sure that gender bias is not impacting the pay outcomes? Do you accept that for smaller businesses with say, 150 employees a payroll analysis may be difficult? Ms Conway: I do not believe so, if they use our tool. That is why we have spent the time and have worked with Mercer to make that tool as user-friendly as possible. CHAIR: How many small businesses of 150 employees or fewer have you consulted with in the construction of that tool? Ms Conway: We certainly have consulted about the pay equity campaign and the tools. We have talked to a range of people, but I could not tell you the size of those organisations. CHAIR: Could you take it on notice. If you are sure it will be applicable to smaller businesses-because sometimes one-size policy does not work-could you take on notice that you have consulted on how to do that for small business
EM1607_15	Ruston, Anne	1-31-2	Agency - Fair Work Commission	FWC - Deregistering of registered organisations	Senator RUSTON: If an organisation was significantly behind in their returns or not compliant, what are the sanctions available to you? For instance, could you take away their tax deductibility or recipient's ability to claim? Ms O'Neill: The principal options that are available to me if I am satisfied that there have been contraventions of the reporting obligations go to matters including seeking civil penalty provisions in the Fair Work Act and things of that nature. They do not go to the power of cancelling a registration of an organisation. That is a power that is exercised by the commission in certain circumstances, but not in those particular circumstances. Mr Enright: The Regulatory Compliance Branch, in recent times in its proactive role, when it has identified where an organisation is significantly failing to comply and possibly defunct, we put together the information and submit it to the tribunal for it to consider whether the organisation is in fact functioning as a registered organisation. I have not got the statistics in front of me, but over the last around two years there have been a number of organisations that have been referred to the tribunal to provide exact number-12 to 15 registered organisations have been deregistered. There has been a number of those have been referred to the commission who have subsequently been identified as being non-compliant in those circumstances. So they are the really non-compliant organisations.
EM1608_15	Ruston, Anne	1-105-3	Agency - Asbestos Safety & Eradication Agency	ASEA - Funding for Dr Berger	Senator RUSTON: So, basically it was just a decision that he had- Mr Tighe: Certainly he was a technical consultant to the agency for that. Perhaps I could just raise with you though that the moneys that were associated with the operation of the task force were jointly funded by the Commonwealth and the State of New South Wales on a 50-50 recovery basis. So, even though the agency remitted the money to them we received from both NBN and Telstra an amount of-I would have to get you that figure. But basically the cost for Dr Berger, the servicing of the task force committee, was all picked up under that funding arrangement, which was agreed by the previous government
