Question

Senator URQUHART: What is the expected date of that final report?

Ms Bell: Wrapping up was on 19 October. We usually give them two to three weeks for the final report and then we review it and provide comments.

Senator URQUHART: So you should have it by the end of October?

Ms Bell: No, probably in November. They only wrapped up on 19 October.

Senator URQUHART: So something around the first week of November?

Ms Bell: Probably in three weeks, yes.

Senator URQUHART: You do not know whether it will be TV, radio or what that looks like at this stage?

Ms Bell: No. The research gives us feedback on the sorts of channels and then we look at the strategic approach.

Senator URQUHART: Are you able to take that on notice and then provide that to the committee when you get it?

Answer

The developmental research report was developed for the purposes of briefing Ministers in relation to a Cabinet decision.
