Question

FWC - Number of employees with access to paid domestic violence leave

How many employees now have access to paid domestic violence leave in union-negotiated workplace agreements?

Answer

The Fair Work Commission (Commission) does not collect discrete data about the incidence of union-negotiated enterprise agreements that contain provisions relating to paid domestic violence leave.

The Department of Employment maintains the Workplace Agreements Database, which contains detailed information on enterprise agreements approved by the Commission. The Department has responded to a similar question on notice. Please refer to EMSQ15-000301.
