Answer

The Department of Education and Training has not committed funding to Our Watch or the Australian National Research Organisation for Women’s Safety Ltd.

Under the Educating Against Domestic Violence measure (part of the Australian Government’s $100 million Women’s Safety Package), the department funded Education Services Australia (ESA) to undertake a stocktake and gap analysis of respectful relationships education resources. As part of this project, ESA contracted Our Watch to review the draft stocktake and gap analysis report at a total cost of $5500 (excluding GST).
