Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ16-001041

Senator Cameron, Doug provided in writing

Industry and occupational coverage of the pilots

Question

Was any consideration given to the industry and occupational coverage of the pilots? And the implications industry and occupational differences might have for different apprenticeship delivery models?

Answer

In assessing the applications, the Department of Education and Training considered the industry occupational coverage of the proposed pilots. The pilots cover both trades and non-trades at the apprentice and higher apprentice level.
