Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

9 May 2017

David Sullivan
Secretary
Senate Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade

Dear Mr Sullivan,

The Department wishes to correct the record on QoN 228 from Additional Estimates in February 2016. The question relates to the Special Envoy of Trade.

Part of the question requested names of attendees at an Australia Cuba Business Conference in Cuba in 2016.

The response originally provided to the committee lists Juan Adeva of Solais Geoinformatics as an attendee. We have been advised Mr Scott Bywaters, who is the Chief Financial Officer of Solais Geoinformatics attended rather than Mr Aveda.

We have updated the question attached to reflect this.

I trust this information is of assistance.

Yours sincerely

Ray Marcelo

QUESTIONS ON NOTICE/IN WRITING

1a) As Special Envoy for Trade, Mr Robb will provide support to the Minister for Trade and Investment, including continuing a leading role in advancing some ongoing negotiations.

1b) Special envoys have been appointed by previous governments to handle a range of issues. Mr Robb will not be paid for his work as Special Envoy.

1c) Mr Robb will be supported by DFAT and Austrade in carrying out his duties.

1d) Mr Robb will receive directions and instructions from the Prime Minister, and work in close consultation with the Minister for Trade and Investment. DFAT will support Mr Robb in undertaking his duties.

1e) Staff positions are managed by the Department of Finance.

2a) Yes.

2b) Mr Robb signed the MOU on behalf of the Government. The MOU is an instrument of less-than-treaty status and does not create legally binding obligations under international law. As such, there was no requirement that a formal instrument of full powers be issued.

2c) The following business delegates and government officials accompanied Mr Robb to Cuba. As the Australian Government does not maintain an Embassy in Cuba, logistics coordination, and on-group support for the mission was provided by staff from the Australian Embassy in Mexico.

Minister's party

- The Hon Andrew Robb AO, Special Envoy Trade, Australian Government
- Chief of Staff to the Special Envoy Trade
- Advisor to the Special Envoy Trade

Business Delegates
