

3. Attendance at Senate Occasional Lectures in the last calendar year (Senator McKenzie)

- Total attendance over recent calendar years is as follows:

Year	Attendance
2008	1230
2009	1100
2010	1230
2011	1640
2012	1025
2013	1250

Note that the number of lecturers in any calendar year can vary slightly.

- Attendance at individual lectures during 2013:

Date	Presenter	Topic	Attendance*
15/02/2013	Dr David Headon	'But once in a history': Canberra's foundation stones and naming ceremonies, 12 March 1913	210
22/03/2013	Dr Chris Kam	Paying politicians: do we get what we pay for?	75
24/05/2013	Jack Waterford	Canberra and the Parliament: an increasingly uncomfortable marriage	250
19/07/2013	Dr James Pfiffner	Dysfunctional politics in the United States: origins and consequences	125
20/09/2013	Dr Aaron Martin	Political engagement among the young in Australia	110
18/08/2013	Women's Panel – The Hon Dr Rosemary Crowley The Hon Amanda Vanstone Laura Tingle	Women in Federal Parliament	240
15/11/2013	Robyn Archer	Re-imagining the Capital	150
6/12/2013	Michael Maley	International election observation: coming ready or not	90
Total			1250

* Attendance is estimated from headcount taken by staff

- The lectures are included in the Senate publication Papers on Parliament which is sent to 338 recipients approximately twice yearly. Papers on Parliament is also available on the Australian Parliament House website.

http://www.aph.gov.au/About_Parliament/Senate/Research_and_Education/pops

- In addition to live transmission on the House Monitoring Service and Parlview, the transcripts, audio and video recordings of the lectures are available on the Australian Parliament House website. Figures for website activity for 2013 calendar year are as follows:

Web page	Number of hits
Senate Occasional Lectures viewed through Parlview*	511
Senate Occasional Lecture total hits	8,134
Papers on Parliament total hits [^]	53,604

* Parlview has been in operation since mid-2013. 5 lectures only are available through Parlview.

[^] Issues of Papers on Parliament contain articles in addition to occasional lectures.

They may also be rebroadcast by television stations.

The associated costs of hosting occasional lecture presenters over the previous three financial years are:

Financial year	Honorarium	Travel and associated costs
2011-12	$3,500	$1,852
2012-13	$3,500	$622
2013-14 [^]	$2,500	$1,278

[^] Costs for 2013-14 are year to date.