Do you review any annual report or budget statement from the six agencies you supervise? If so, which documents do you review, for which agencies, and to whom do you report?

Answer:

In accordance with section 32A of the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security Act 1986, I have standing agreements with the heads of each of the six Australian intelligence agencies to provide me with a copy of their classified annual reports.

There are no specific requirements for me to report on the annual reports of those agencies.
