Senator LUDWIG: The question was—and I will put it on notice, if you would not mind taking it—given the recommendations, can you just address each recommendation in the report and let us know where you are up to. Can you let us know what the response is by the ASC to each of those recommendations and the effective work that you are going to put in place to deal with each of those recommendations. If there are recommendations that you are not addressing, then can you also let us know the reason why you are not addressing them.

Answer:

Due to commercial sensitivities, the Winter Report will remain confidential to the Government and will not be publicly released at this time.
