Question:

Mr Tune: No. In cash terms it is probably not going to make much difference. In the fiscal it might because there is this timing issue that Mr Thomann was referring to before.

Senator WONG: It has to make a difference in cash terms as well if that is how it has been accounted for in the way that Mr Thomann said, doesn't it?

Mr Tune: We do not have the cash numbers here. We have just got the fiscal—

Senator WONG: Why don't you provide those on notice? What I want to understand—

Mr Tune: We will take that on notice.

Answer:

The Commonwealth Budget estimates for the contributions to the National Disability Insurance Scheme are the same whether reported on an underlying cash or fiscal basis.
