Question:

Senator JACINTA COLLINS: I will move to the issue of nonstandard workplaces. The answer to question on notice 40 from the last round indicates that at the end of January there were three personal employees with a nonstandard work base. In which offices were those nonstandard home bases located?

...

And for each nonstandard home base, where was the work base and where was the home base?

Ms Connell: We are seeing if we have that, Senator.

Senator Ronaldson: I think we will take that on notice. There are potentially some privacy issues there. We will take it on notice and have a look.

Ms Moy: If there is any change to the position in January—I do not have that with me—I can provide that to you on notice.

Senator JACINTA COLLINS: And similarly the position in relation to—

Senator WONG: Hang on. That is not included in the tables, is it?

Ms Moy: No.

Senator WONG: Perhaps we can just add that to the tables and the personal classifications.

Senator Ronaldson: We will take it on notice, Senator. I think it is one, and that is only temporary. The Prime Minister has indicated that there will not be those nonstandard home bases. My recollection is that there is one remaining. I think that is a temporary position. So I will take that.

Senator JACINTA COLLINS: So from the three that were previously the case, you think it is down to one?

Senator Ronaldson: I think it is down to one. I will take that on notice.

Answer:

As at 31 May 2014 there was one remaining temporary non-standard work base of those referred to in F40, February Additional Estimates.
