Type of question: Written

Date set by the committee for the return of answer: 11 July 2014

Number of pages: 3

Question:

(1) Provide a breakdown for each employment classification that has a corporate credit card.

Please update details of the following:

(2) What action is taken if the corporate credit card is misused?

(3) How is corporate credit card use monitored?

(4) What happens if misuse of a corporate credit card is discovered?

(5) Have any instances of corporate credit card misuse have been discovered since Additional Estimates in February 2014? List staff classification and what the misuse was, and the action taken.

(6) What action is taken to prevent corporate credit card misuse?

Answer:

(1) Forty staff members within the Office have a corporate credit card. Eligibility is based on business need:

Employment Classification	Number of Cards
Ombudsman	1
Deputy Ombudsman	1
SES	5
EL 2	7
EL 1	10
APS 6	3
APS 5	6
APS 4	5
APS 3	2
Total	40

- (2) The Office will investigate all cases of suspected misuse. Relevant actions may include:
- education and awareness training for individual;
  - cancellation of card where necessary;
  - referring offenders to appropriate agencies where necessary,
  - seeking civil, administrative or disciplinary penalties where appropriate, and
  - recovering the proceeds of any fraudulent activity.
- (3) Office card use is monitored in a number of ways:
- all credit card holders are required to reconcile their credit card statement monthly, which includes providing invoices or receipts supporting the transaction and seeking approval from their supervisor,
  - the Finance Section within the Office reviews all credit card statement acquittals and provides assurance over transaction anomalies, and
  - the Office undertakes an annual review of credit card use to ensure a credit card is needed by the official and that the transaction limits are appropriate.
- (4) Once misuse of a corporate credit card is discovered the Office's Chief Financial Officer (CFO) is notified. Where appropriate, the cardholder is also notified and the credit card is cancelled. If there is suspected fraud, the Office will conduct an investigation, and consider the kinds of actions referred to above at Question 2 in the case of misuse or abuse.
- (5) From Additional Estimates in February, 2014 to 31 May 2014, there have been NIL instances of misuse of Office corporate credit cards.
- (6) Actions to prevent misuse of corporate cards include:
- the Office's Chief Executive's Instructions provide specific guidance to staff on credit card issue and usage,
  - credit cards are only issued to staff based on an identified need which must be agreed by the CFO prior to issue,
  - all credit card holders are required to sign on obtaining a card and annually thereafter a form detailing the conditions of use for the credit card,

- all credit card holders are required to reconcile their credit card statement monthly, which includes providing invoices or receipts supporting the transaction and having the statement signed by their supervisor,
- the Finance Section reviews all credit card statements to ensure they are completed and that the amount on the statement and amount paid to the bank agree,
- the Office undertakes an annual review of credit card use to ensure a credit card is needed by the official and that the transaction and monthly limits are appropriate,
- credit cards are cancelled promptly when an officer leaves the Office,
- cash is not able to be withdrawn from our Office credit cards,
- certain vendors are barred from use by the credit card provider,
- APS Values training is provided to all staff, and
- fraud awareness training.
