Number of pages: 1

Question:

Senator MOORE: One of the questions I have generally—and I will put this on notice—is about everything when we talk about moving: in your case, has that meant a physical move? Or are you still operating out of other buildings? When you say you have moved to PM&C, have 21 people picked up their computers and moved?

Ms Steele: Yes, correct.

Senator MOORE: So where are you now, physically?

Ms Steele: We are at 1 National Circuit.

Ms McDevitt: The Office for Women was located in PM&C's main office, which is 1 National Circuit in Barton, just down the road—in fact, on the same floor as Social Policy Division.

Senator MOORE: Can you give us any idea what the cost of that move was?

Ms Cross: We can take that on notice, but because it is quite a small team it would have been pretty low-cost

Answer: The cost for the relocation of the Office for Women from Tuggeranong to 1 National Circuit, Barton, was $1,093.40 (incl GST).
