Question:

Senator MOORE: I understand—as you plan who is going. The fact that they have had thematic processes to see on the website, that they are scheduled and who is at the round table and what the focus us are important. You said tax reform.

Ms Cross: We can do that or we can provide the information to you.

Senator MOORE: I will put things on notice. It seems to me that the more this goes out in a public place on the website, the more that it engages people on the topics.

Answer:

The Minister for Women is hosting roundtables with business to consider how Government and business can work together to increase women's workforce participation and strengthen women's economic security.

On 19 November 2015, the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet co-chaired a financial literacy roundtable with Joyce Phillips, Group Managing Director Marketing and Innovation, ANZ.

The leadership roundtable was reported on the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet website. <http://www.dpmc.gov.au/pmc-office-women/media/2015/minister-cash-leads-women's-leadership-roundtable>.
