Question:

Senator LEYONHJELM: That is right. I was a little concerned that you were being brought into the process rather late. In the material the health department has provided to the OBPR, has there been reference made to a survey-based report by Dr Michelle Scollo of Cancer Council Victoria?

Mr McNamara: We would have to take that on notice.

Answer:

The post-implementation review (PIR) is not yet finalised. It is still in a deliberative phase and we don't release information on deliberative processes.
