Question:

Can you give details of what funding for those Indigenous initiatives is part of programmes or initiatives that were announced or in place prior to 24 September 2015?

Answer:

The Indigenous specific measures in the Women's Safety Package include two new activities, including support for Queensland police and a targeted intervention for at risk young mothers. It also contains the extension and expansion of three existing initiatives:

- Community Engagement Police Officers in the Northern Territory;
- the Cross Border Domestic Violence Intelligence Desk; and
- existing prisoner rehabilitation services to help perpetrators of domestic violence change their behaviour.
