Question:

What continual oversight will IGIS have in ensuring these recommendations are fully implemented?

Is there a time limit for the compliance with these recommendations?

Answer:

The IGIS has received regular updates on the implementation of recommendations since the inquiry was completed in December 2014. All recommendations are expected to be completed within identified time frames. ASIS has made commitments and put in place appropriate measures to address ongoing conduct flowing from the recommendations and the IGIS will continue to oversee these activities.
