Date set by the committee for the return of answer: 4 December 2015

Number of pages: 4

Question:

In relation to the COAG Land Review, which stakeholders has the Expert Working Group consulted with? Provide a list.

- a. How were these consultations undertaken? Was there a formal submission process?
- b. If so, how many submissions were received?

Answer:

A list of stakeholders consulted by the Expert Indigenous Working Group is at Attachment A. The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet also consulted key stakeholders and these are noted at the end of Attachment A.

As part of a targeted consultation process, the Expert Indigenous Working Group met with key Indigenous, Government and industry stakeholders across the country and attended key national forums including the 2015 National Native Title Conference and the Australian Human Rights Commission's Indigenous Leaders Roundtable on Property Rights.

The Expert Indigenous Working Group wrote to nearly 200 stakeholders inviting written submissions to the Investigation. Members of the public were able to contact the Expert Indigenous Working Group through the Department's website. The Investigation received a total of 36 written submissions.
