Question No. 109

Senator Singh asked the following question at the hearing on 24 February 2014:

The Australia Council invested over $174.8 million in artists and arts organisations across Australia in 2012–13, compared to $164.5 million in the previous financial year. What is your projected expenditure for this financial year?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

The Australia Council's projected expenditure on investment in artists and arts organisations in 2013-14 is approximately $203.9 million.
