IMMIGRATION AND BORDER PROTECTION PORTFOLIO

(AE15/004) - Manus Island Detention Centre - Travel to China - Programme 3.2
Compliance, Detention and Status Resolution (Departmental)

Senator Hanson-Young, Sarah (L&CA 11) asked:

Senator HANSON-YOUNG: It is Australian taxpayer money, of course, being spent here. How many trips has the immigration department paid for to China in the last 12 months?

Mr Pezzullo: Across everything that we do or in relation to this particular contract?

Senator HANSON-YOUNG: In relation to the Manus Island detention centre.

Mr Pezzullo: I would not have a clue but Ms Briscoe might have some information on that.

Ms Briscoe: We would have to take that on notice. I do not actually have information about that travel.
