AE16/001	Executive Division	CARR	Cabinet Document leak	Mr Pezzullo: At the point in time that that document was created, it was created for the purposes of discussion with other agencies. Ms Noble will correct me and refresh me. She briefed me in detail over the weekend. That document went out to a number of other agencies in what we describe in the business as a 'pre-exposure draft'. Senator KIM CARR: Are you able to tell me which agencies received the pre-	9
AE16/002	Children, Community and Settlement Services	CARR	School numbers on Nauru	Ms Moy: There are a number of children who do not attend school. The numbers who are attending school at the moment are very similar to the numbers who attended in the educational facility which was in the regional processing centre. The numbers have not changed dramatically. Senator KIM CARR: What percentage is that? Ms Moy: I will pull that percentage out for you. The number of children who are attending school really does relate to parental involvement. The five counsellors who are provided do work with both the schools and the parents. They assist the parents in engaging with the school and therefore assisting the children. But at the end of the day, parental responsibility is difficult. I will get that information for you, if you will just bear with me for a moment. No, I do not have the actual percentage but I will get that for you during the course of the day. Senator KIM CARR: What is the number then?	15

AE16/003	Children, Community and Settlement Services	MACDONA LD	School-age population on Nauru	CHAIR: Do you have any idea of the school-age population of Nauruans? Ms Moy: No. I would have to take that on notice. Mr Pezzullo: The size of the cohort? Ms Moy: We could find that out during the day. CHAIR: Would it be 1,000? Mr Pezzullo: The population of Nauru is around 8,000. I guess we could work it	17
AE16/004	Children, Community and Settlement Services	MACDONA LD	Teachers on Nauru	CHAIR: Do you have any idea of how many teachers there are in Nauru? I am interested in that. Ms Moy: I can find that out for you. Mr Pezzullo: If it assists the committee, to answer both Senator Carr's earlier question and yours, we will come back through the course of the day with the size of the overall school population, which will answer your question, and also the number of teachers. That will give you a sense— CHAIR: I just want to get a sense of the size of the contribution— Mr Pezzullo: We will also establish the	17
AE16/005	Detention Services	HANSON-YOUNG	Numbers in Australia not connected to M68/M80	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: How many people are in Australia who are considered to be transferees, either from Nauru or from Manus, who are not part of the M68 case, in addition to the 267 people? Mr Pezzullo: To answer the question I will need to also probably reflect on the M80 proceedings that pertain to Manus. Does that go to your question as well? I will take some advice from Ms Briscoe. Perhaps persons who are transferees in Australia from either Manus or Nauru, who are not joined to either M68 or M80—I think that is the best way to couch that answer. Ms Briscoe: I have total numbers, but I do not have the breakdown right at hand of those not part of those proceedings. We will get that very quickly for you. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: That is great. Can we have the total number you have	19

AE16/006	Children, Community and Settlement Services	CARR	Resettlement countries	Senator KIM CARR: In regard to the regional partners and possible resettlement of people that are currently on Nauru and are there as a result of Australian government actions, what actual countries have been approached? Mr Pezzullo: Beyond the occasional and episodic references made to such matters by both my minister and other ministers, including the foreign minister, I do not know that I am in a position, without referring back to ministers, to volunteer to you a conclusive list or an exclusive list, as it were, of the countries that have been approached. By definition, if there are discussions on foot which are at a particularly delicate state	24
AE16/007	Detention Services	MACDONALD	Fall in numbers of self-harm injuries	CHAIR: Someone has kindly given me the newspaper report. It says that in the three months after the ban on family members that was implemented in September, there has been a dramatic fall in self-inflicted injuries—coming down to zero, I understand. Is that accurate? This is reported in the— Mr Pezzullo: We will check that. It	25
AE16/008	Detention Services	LEYONHJELM	Ratio of self-harm incidents	CHAIR: Are there any broad statistics on whether the self-harm is done by older people or younger people, men or women? Mr Pezzullo: I am sure we would have that data. It might be useful both to get that data and to remind ourselves what was published by The Australian and try to reverse engineer the numbers they seem to be working on. Senator KIM CARR: You should go to the source. Ask them what they provided The Australian. Mr Pezzullo: We might just look at the article first. We are sort of boxing at shadows. Senator KIM CARR: It might just save you a bit of time, that's all. Senator LEYONHJELM: You may want to take this on notice as well. Given what appears to be, from the numbers you have just read out, significantly more instances of self-harm at domestic detention centres than on Manus or	26

AE16/009	Children, Community and Settlement Services	HANSON-YOUNG	Conditions of children transferred to Australia	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Do you know how many of the children of the group of 90, who are currently part of the 267 cohort, are displaying signs of depression, anxiety or have other long-term medical issues that they are here in Australia for? Dr Brayley: I am aware of specific cases where there is a need for paediatric follow-up, child and adolescent mental health service follow-up, and people continuing to get treatment either through IHMS or referral to the local hospital or clinic. How that might relate to the question we are discussing now in terms of whether these are long-term, severe conditions or other conditions	29
AE16/010	International	CARR	Conversation with UNHCR - Third Country Resettlement	Senator KIM CARR: When was the last time there was a conversation with the UNHCR about finding third-country resettlement options for people who are on Nauru? Mr Pezzullo: Those discussions are ongoing. We have senior representatives in Geneva. We are asked. On occasions, we proffer. We are asked about things like: 'With the High Court decision known as M68, what does that portend?' Our officers have a positive, constructive and open engagement with UNHCR. Obviously, they operate— Senator KIM CARR: Can you tell me the date at which these conversations last took place? Mr Pezzullo: I will take it on notice. We have diplomatic representatives in Geneva who are accredited to the	32
AE16/011	Visa and Citizenship Management	CARR	Additional staff numbers - Syrian Refugee Resettlement Programme	Senator KIM CARR: So the $33 million is anticipated to be spent over a two-year period? Mr Groves: As reflected in the current additional estimates, yes. Senator KIM CARR: Of course if the program runs beyond 2017 you will be requiring additional moneys. Mr Groves: Additional moneys or we would be looking to potentially move some of that funding. Mr Pezzullo: Rephrasing would be more likely	34

AE16/012	Visa and Citizenship Management	CARR	Staff reallocations - Syrian Refugee Resettlement Programme	Mr Vardos: We have supplemented our existing posted resources. These are people who go on three-year postings to the region. We have supplemented those resources with short-term missions, which can last a matter of months or a matter of weeks. It is subject to a range of factors, including availability of office accommodation. We are not the only ones who occupy those offices. Senator KIM CARR: How many staff have been reallocated on a short-term basis? Mr Vardos: I would have to take that on notice. I was looking for that figure before I came to the table, and I do not actually have it. Mr Pezzullo: We will take it on notice. Mr Vardos: Someone else may have it, but I do not. Mr Pezzullo: We will take it on notice. Senator KIM CARR: Can I just finish on this. In terms of the question on notice— CHAIR: We will come back to you later.	34/36
AE16/013	Syrian Refugee Resettlement Programme	CARR	Application status - Syrian Refugee Resettlement Programme	Senator KIM CARR: How many applications have been rejected? Mr Vardos: Off the top of my head I could not tell you how many have been rejected, ..... Senator KIM CARR: So it is predominantly on security grounds that these applications are not being processed? Mr Vardos: No, I cannot confirm that. It could be a whole range of reasons. It could be health reasons. It could be character reasons. Senator KIM CARR: On what categorisation have you not proceeded with their applications? Mr Vardos: I would have to take that on notice. Senator KIM CARR: I would like to know whether it is health reasons, security reasons or character reasons—in other words, they are criminals, I presume. Mr Pezzullo: To foreshadow an element of the response we will give on notice,	35

AE16/014	Detention Services	HANSON-YOUNG	M68 - 72 hour waiting period	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Out of the 267 people, if that court case had not been on foot, and the undertaking of the 72 hours waiting for the case to resolve, how many of those people do you understand would have already been transferred back to Nauru? Mr Pezzullo: I might need to take some advice. The other way to look at the question and to derive the answer is: of those who were subject only to the 72-hour period—the block, as it were—how many were ready to be returned the morning after the court case? I am struggling to recall. I think it is in the order of a fifth to a quarter. If Ms Briscoe has that information, she will give it to you now, otherwise we will take it on notice. Ms Briscoe: What I can add to that is that this changes on a daily basis. It is related to the fit-to-travel assessments that are regularly done and updated. If the number were 100 today, it could be different tomorrow. That could be as a result of further medical advice, as a result of an appointment being	40
AE16/015	Detention Services	HANSON-YOUNG	M68 - numbers in Aust because of sexual assault	Ms Briscoe: Oh, yes. I have that number. The number from Nauru who were not subject to M68 is 62, and the number from Manus that are not involved in the M80 proceedings is 12. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: How many of those women who are still here in Australia are subject to medical treatment because of a sexual assault or abuse? Ms Briscoe: I do not have that. I will take that on notice. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Someone must be able to get that today, surely. Mr Pezzullo: We would have to break the data down, Senator. If we can do it today, we will. Senator O'SULLIVAN: Could I ask that the data include alleged sexual assault, as this is where it has been established that there is evidence of sexual assault. Mr Pezzullo: Indeed, Senator. We will look at it.	42

AE16/016	Finance Division	LINES	Perth Airport - Annual ABF expenses	Senator LINES: I wanted to ask you some questions about Perth Airport. What amount is spent by the ABF at Perth international airport annually? Mr Pezzullo: The amount spent in terms of salaries and expenses? Senator LINES: Yes, the whole kit and caboodle. Mr Pezzullo: The uniformed officers work directly for the commissioner so I might defer to him. I would be slightly surprised if he had the information immediately front of mind but he might be able to take it on notice. Senator LINES: Have you got APS staff there who are not in uniform? Mr Pezzullo: All the staff at our airports work either directly for the commissioner as uniformed officers or they are seconded to the regional command that is overseen by the commissioner. I might ask him to open the batting. Senator LINES: I just want to make sure we are covering off on everyone. Mr Quaedvlieg: The secretary is correct:	42
AE16/017	Finance Division	LINES	Passenger Movement Charges Perth International Airport	Senator LINES: Great; thank you. What amount is collected in Passenger Movement Charges at Perth international airport annually? Mr Quaedvlieg: Again, it is a question I will take a notice, unless the chief financial officer has that information to hand in his pack. I am sure he is readily looking at that now, but I do not have an answer to hand. Mr Groves: Sorry to be an anticlimax, but we do not track Passenger Movement Charge collections by airport. All Passenger Movement Charges are collected by airlines and normally as part of the ticket price et cetera Senator LINES: Can you track it by airlines that land and depart from Perth? Mr Groves: No, we do not track it by that.	43

AE16/018	Strategic Border Command	LINES	Perth Airport - 16 outbound immigration counters	Senator LINES: Your estimate will do. We understand that since the recent upgrades to Perth Airport there are now 16 outbound immigration counters. Mr Pezzullo: Again, I will defer to the commissioner. Mr Quaedvlieg: It sounds right, but before I commit to that on Hansard I will	43
AE16/019	Finance Division	LINES	Overtime proportionately between Perth Airport and other	Senator LINES: Can you have a look at the overtime proportionately between Perth airport and your other airports. Mr Quaedvlieg: I can. Would you like that answer on notice?	45
AE16/021	Children, Community and Settlement Services	O'SULLIVAN	Nauru - Incident Report 5 year old child	Senator O'SULLIVAN: With respect, my question feeds into the line of questioning that I was pursuing earlier. I think sometimes we need to collect some data in relation to what the genesis of some of these complaints is, see if there is a course of conduct with advocates or a particular advocate or a particular group of advocates who take the ball under their arm and run with it when in fact there is no ball at all, no game, no whistle. Mr Pezzullo: In the interests of being entirely precise as best as we can be we might take on notice a review of the initial incident report; who made the report. I am not sure it will exactly shed

AE16/022	Detention Services	O'SULLIVAN	Nauru - Data on complaints	Senator O'SULLIVAN: Important. Do you have data on how many complaints are made versus the number of prosecutions that result from those complaints—of all assaults, sexual assaults— Mr Pezzullo: Recalling always that the relevant criminal jurisdiction is the one of Nauru, we will need to take that on notice whether our officers keep parallel statistics that mirror, if you like, statistics kept by the Nauru justice department—I think it is their home affairs department from memory. I think the short answer is yes, we probably would be able to access that information, not that that it is sovereignly held by us but we could probably access, if you like, the number of incident reports which—I think your question goes to being of a sexual nature: a rape, assault— Senator O'SULLIVAN: I do not want to burden you with all this. I am not one of the ones who drops a one-line sentence	48/49
AE16/024	Border Force Capability	CARR	Uniforms - Made in Australia	Senator KIM CARR: Refresh my memory on the uniforms. Are they made in Australia? Mr Quaadvlieg: I will take that on notice. I think I saw a label, actually. They may have been, but I will take that on notice. Senator KIM CARR: Thank you. I will be pleased if they are. Mr Quaadvlieg: I will come back to you on that one. Senator KIM CARR: And, if they are not, a whole series of other questions flow from that. I also saw a report that you spent $16,000 on flags. Is that true? Ms Noble: I have to take that on notice.	56
AE16/025	Executive Division	CARR	Branded notebooks	Senator KIM CARR: I would like a list, if I could please, of the where that $9.6 million comes from and how you get to that figure. I am hearing that the ABF spent $25,000 on branded notebooks. Is that true? Ms Noble: We will have to take that on	57

AE16/026	Visa and Citizenship Management	CARR	MV Portland - Crew taken off the vessel	Senator KIM CARR: I am interested to know what procedures were put in place for the crew that were taken off the vessel. Mr Quaedvlieg: Understood, Senator. I am scanning this document as I respond to your questions, and that is not contained in this advice. Can I further take that on notice and seek to get back to you prior to the end of this? Senator KIM CARR: Right. That was the point of the question. Those people, I am told, are concerned about what their status is—not having been officially recognised as re-entering the country. Mr Quaedvlieg: I understand. You are interested in the inbound clearance. Senator KIM CARR: And whether or not they have actually been cleared by an authorised Customs officer to re-enter Australia. Mr Quaedvlieg: I understand. I will take that on notice. Senator KIM CARR: Of the crew that departed, what dates were their visas issued? Mr Quaedvlieg: I do not have that	58
AE16/027	Visa and Citizenship Management	CARR	MV Portland - contact with visa processing staff	Senator KIM CARR: Did any senior departmental officer have contact with the visa processing staff about the issuing of those visas? I want to know the process by which the visas were issued and if there was any contact with any minister's office. Mr Quaedvlieg: I will take that on notice. Senator KIM CARR: What was the nature of that ministerial involvement? Mr Quaedvlieg: Yes. Senator KIM CARR: With regard to the crew, is it fair to describe the work as being highly specialised? Mr Quaedvlieg: I do not think I am in a position to give you a factual answer. I do not know what their work is. Senator KIM CARR: Is the S400 visa the one that is referred to? Is that the same visa?	58/59

AE16/028	Detention Services	CARR	Christmas Island - Upgrade costs	Senator KIM CARR: How much extra do you wish to spend on the facility then to do the hardening, as you describe it? Ms Briscoe: I do not have that information to hand. I can take that on	59
AE16/029	Detention Services	CARR	Christmas Island - Public works approval	Senator KIM CARR: I presume that normal public works approval processes will need to be undertaken for that to be extended? Ms Briscoe: I am not entirely sure if those works will be subject to the Public Works Committee.	60
AE16/030	Children, Community and Settlement Services	CARR	Minors in Onshore detention	Ms Briscoe: So the number in held detention is 86 and the number of transitory persons subject to return to Nauru is 69 of those 86. Senator KIM CARR: Thank you. How many are unaccompanied minors? Ms Briscoe: I will have to check that on	61
AE16/031	Strategic Border Command	CARR	New Zealand cohort breakdown	Senator KIM CARR: How many of those are New Zealand citizens? Mr Outram: I should qualify that these numbers as of 31 December. I cannot say how many of these are in the 501 cohort. We could probably come to that. There are 183 New Zealand citizens in onshore detention facilities. Most of those would be, I suspect, in the 501 cohort. Senator KIM CARR: How long have they been there? Mr Outram: I could not give you a precise number. Obviously, it is case by case. Senator KIM CARR: You must have some statistic of it.	62
AE16/032	Strategic Border Command	CARR	New Zealand removals	Senator KIM CARR: If we go back to what you told us in October: from 1 November 2014 to 30 September 2015, there were 146 New Zealand citizens who had been removed. Can you provide an update on those figures? Mr Outram: I can. Just bear with me one second. Sorry, removals going back to what point? Senator KIM CARR: The advice that we were given in October was from 1 November 2014 through to 30	62

AE16/033	Strategic Border Command	CARR	New Zealand custodial sentences	Senator KIM CARR: Thank you. Given the level of interest this has generated across the Tasman and here in the Australian media, I noticed there were some comments from New Zealand MPs about this matter. Of the 146 who were removed, had they all served custodial sentences in Australia? Mr Outram: The 106 removed between 1 November 2014 and— Senator KIM CARR: Yes, and the 30	62
AE16/034	Community Protection	CARR	Custodial Sentences determination	Senator KIM CARR: Have any of those that are currently being detained not served a custodial sentence of 12 months? Mr Williams: It is possible there might be some who are subject to discretionary cancellation. We would have to check. Senator KIM CARR: Can you give me that information as to how many? Mr Williams: Sure. Senator KIM CARR: How are they	62/63
AE16/035	Community Protection	CARR	s501 Mandatory cancellation	Senator KIM CARR: Is the 30 people coming out a month the number that we could assume is appropriate for this 501 cancellation? Is that 30 people in total in Australia leaving jail every month, roughly. Mr Pezzullo: Roughly, yes. We have already taken on notice how many are held in detention as of today, the day that you are asking the question, effectively going back to 30 September; we have already taken on notice how many New Zealand citizens have been removed, so that is the other part of the question that we have taken on notice;	63
AE16/036	Community Protection	MACDONALD	s501 judicial reviews	CHAIR: Of the 73 that were finalised, 36 have been reinstated. Of the others, how many have sought judicial review? Ms Dunn: We do not have that. We can take it on notice. CHAIR: Is it some? Ms Dunn: It is a small number. CHAIR: Okay.	65

AE16/037	Community Protection	CARR	s501 revocations	Senator KIM CARR: What were the grounds for the 36 who had their applications upheld? Mr Pezzullo: We are starting to get to a point where—I am not saying that individual cases will be easily discerned, but— Senator KIM CARR: They must have grounds, though. Mr Pezzullo: There would be grounds. I think the best course of action would be	65
AE16/038	Community Protection	CARR	s501 Ministers decision	Senator KIM CARR: I am interested in the one that is not the automatic one. I think the officers have already spelt out that there are other grounds. Mr Pezzullo: Character. Senator KIM CARR: Yes, that is one where the minister has the capacity— Ms De Veau: to make a personal decision? That occurs— Senator KIM CARR: How many times has that happened? Ms De Veau: We would have to look at that. Mr Pezzullo: We will take that on notice.	66
AE16/039	Finance Division	CARR	Cost of detaining someone on Christmas Island	Senator KIM CARR: What is the daily cost of detaining someone in a facility on Christmas Island? Mr Pezzullo: If the commissioner does not have that to hand, some of his officers may have that information Mr Quaedvlieg: I do not have that information and I suspect it is not lying around anywhere on a spreadsheet. It	66
AE16/040	Community Protection	MACDONALD	s501 Statistics on other nationalities	CHAIR: Regarding the statistics you have given on New Zealanders, do you have the same statistics for other nationalities as a group? Mr Pezzullo: If we took it on notice, I am sure that we would have that data, yes. CHAIR: To give me some sense of perspective, would it be more than 561 or less or about the same? Mr Pezzullo: The New Zealand group is	66

AE16/041	Community Protection	MACDONA LD	Visa cancellations on character grounds	CHAIR: These figures are getting confusing to me and perhaps to everyone else. Of those who had their visas mandatory or cancelled on character grounds, 367 have applied to the minister for revocation, and those 367 remain in detention until the minister determines their case—is that right? Ms Dunn: Some of those people choose to go home. I do not have the number with me right now, but a number have chosen to go home and have had successful revocations since they returned to New Zealand. CHAIR: And so they are able to come back? Ms Dunn: Yes. CHAIR: I am wondering which of those who have had cancellations but have not sought revocation are still kept in detention? Do you have a figure for those at the present time? Mr Quaadvlieg: Senator, I am wondering, if it would help you, if we took it on notice and provided to you in	68
AE16/042	Children, Community and Settlement Services	HANSON-YOUNG	Children - medical concerns/family concerns	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: How many of the children who are from Nauru—that is the 69 in detention, or the 38 in community detention— are here because they have medical concerns, as opposed to being attached to a family member? Ms Moy: I would have to take that on	69

AE16/043	Detention Services	HANSON-YOUNG	Children in detention	Mr Pezzullo: I would link that to the question we have already taken on notice from your earlier questions. We said that we would on notice come back with a breakdown as to children in our care—those who have been returned to Australia—who have got those conditions. I will just check what we took on notice compared to the words you have just used. But we will just add whatever words you have just used—so, anxiety, depression— Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Or other mental health problems. Mr Pezzullo: We will give you an omnibus response on notice. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: This question is slightly different to the other one, because I am asking about all children and not just those out of the 267. Mr Pezzullo: Sorry. Earlier today we were talking about the Nauru children, if I can use that term. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Yes. Mr Pezzullo: Now you are asking? Senator HANSON-YOUNG: I am asking how many children overall are in	69/70
AE16/044	Children, Community and Settlement Services	HANSON-YOUNG	Alleged physical abuse	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Could I have some figures on how many children have alleged to have been physically abused or assaulted who have been transferred from Nauru? Mr Pezzullo: Senator O'Sullivan asked I think pretty much an identical question earlier today, so we will wrap that into the same question on notice. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: He asked about sexual assault. I am asking—	70

AE16/045	Detention Services	HANSON-YOUNG	Self-harm cases	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: In the last estimates session, in October, you gave me some figures around the actual self-harm cases. They sounded different to what was read out earlier today. Could we have some clarification around that? In October you told this session that there have been 74 cases of actual self-harm on Nauru in the first six months, so that would have been from January to June, and we are getting these figures in October. That sounds different to what you had reported earlier today. I am wondering why there is a discrepancy. Mr Pezzullo: The officer in question might return to the table. It sounds broadly similar—whether there was some delayed reporting or whether some reports came to light subsequent to— Senator HANSON-YOUNG: It was 74 cases of actual self-harm— Mr Pezzullo: In the first six months? Senator HANSON-YOUNG: In the first six months. Mr Pezzullo: I do recall that exchange from last October. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: That was 74	70/71

AE16/046	Children, Community and Settlement Services	O'SULLIVAN	assault versus harassment	Ms Moy: Zero further reports—correct. In terms of within the community there were four allegations of sexual assault harassment against an adult and one sexual harassment assault of a minor, in terms of allegations. So that is a total of five since last estimates. Senator O'SULLIVAN: There are two separate complainants, one who complained that on four occasions they were the subject of sexual harassment? Ms Moy: No, there were four individual occasions—so there were four individuals—of adults sexual harassment or assault alleged. Senator O'SULLIVAN: Can you separate that? Ms Moy: I can say that there is one male and three females. Senator O'SULLIVAN: No, but I mean an allegation of assault versus harassment. Ms Moy: I do not mean to be obtuse, but the definition of assault and	71/72

AE16/047	SES Unit	CARR	SES Staff leaving the Department	Senator KIM CARR: Mr Pezzullo, how many SES staff have left the department in each of the following years: 2012-13, 2013-14, 2014-15, and 2015-16 as year-to-date? Mr Pezzullo: If Dr Charker has this information to hand she will provide it. Of course, in the period since 1 July 2015—that is to say, the current financial year—you are talking about an SES group that is the amalgam of the previous immigration department and the former customs service: a roughly 150-strong SES. In those prior years going back to 2012-13 I am taking your question as pertaining to the former immigration department. Senator KIM CARR: Yes. Dr Charker: What I do not have here are the figures that go back prior to 1 July 2015. Noting the secretary's comments, they do relate to two separate organisations, or, if you are mainly interested in immigration, just the one. I certainly do have some figures here for you on SES movements from 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2015—the previous financial	74/75

There is a policy group headed up by Deputy Secretary Noble, who is not available at the moment. She heads a group that consists of a number of policy divisions—an Immigration and Citizenship Policy Division; an international policy division. To assist me in understanding the point of your question, are you interested in the entire group, or a particular division within the group? Senator KIM CARR: The whole group. The whole group would be helpful. Mr Pezzullo: Dr Charker, working with her colleague, Ms Noble, will take it on notice at the group level. Senator KIM CARR: I am interested to know what the corporate history is in terms of the policy advice.	75

AE16/049	Refugee and Humanitarian Visa Management	HANSON-YOUNG	UNHCR Refugees Indonesia/Malaysia	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Is there still effectively a ban, which was how it was described, on taking UNHCR registered refugees who are residing in Indonesia? Mr Pezzullo: Our preference is to take such persons from the Middle East and other places. Now that we have defeated the boats, the next pull factor becomes getting to Indonesia because there is another way to, if you like, queue yourself into Australia so the policy position remains one of assisting Indonesia. We work with Indonesian authorities. We work with the IOM to make sure that people in Indonesia are as comfortable as circumstances can be and that they are given durable options to apply for settlement places in the appropriate manner. But our focus at the moment is really to focus on refugees from the Middle East and elsewhere but not those who have travelled to Indonesia for the conscious purpose of getting on a boat to come to Australia, which is a path that is now blocked. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: We have not resettled anybody since that statement	80/81
AE16/050	Refugee and Humanitarian Visa Management	HANSON-YOUNG	Ban of applications assessed onshore	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: That arrangement was struck in December 2014. We are now in February 2016. You are saying the minister has not lifted the bar to allow them to have their applications assessed onshore? Mr Wilden: That is correct. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: Why has it not happened yet? Mr Wilden: I cannot speak for the minister on that. As you know, there have been several pieces of legislation that have been going through over the last year or so. But, as to why it has not been yet signed, I cannot speak for the minister. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: The minister has the ability to lift the bar, to allow people to have an application put forward onshore. It is not a legislative requirement that— Mr Wilden: It is a ministerial instrument,	85

The other 6,000 were people who previously lodged an application for a permanent protection visa and are, by legislation, deemed to have applied for a temporary protection visa, so they do not need— Senator HANSON-YOUNG: They do not need the bar lifted. Mr Kukoc: They do not need the bar lifted. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: So is that exactly 30,500?	85
AE16/052	Refugee and Humanitarian Visa Management	HANSON-YOUNG	Legacy Caseload numbers	Senator HANSON-YOUNG: So that I am absolutely correct and sure about this: are the extra 100 people who are waiting for the minister to approve—which was part of the deal with Senator Muir—included in your figure of 30,500? Mr Kukoc: I do not think so, but I will confirm that on notice. I think they will come on top of that. Senator HANSON-YOUNG: So that we are talking apples and apples, could you give me the exact figures that the department had in February estimates last year for the same group of people? It depends on the circumstances of the people involved, and it can be from a very short period to quite an extended period, for example, if they are currently at judicial review. There is no way that I can answer that question. What is the definition you use for antisocial behaviour? Ms Moy: There would not be anyone who would be drunk within the centre because we do not have alcohol; however, it would be classified as someone who may be pushing in the food line, when they are going to the mess. It could be, as you say, verbal abuse or verbal contact with someone else that was complained about by the other individual. Senator BILYK: Can you give me a breakdown? You would have that information, would you not? Ms Moy: Of the 138? Senator BILYK: Yes, of what level of antisocial behaviour they exhibited, if they were pushing, if they were using expletives— Ms Moy: I would have to take that on notice. Senator BILYK: Thank you. Mr Pezzullo: I think a push might be an	88

Are you able to tell me in regard to Nauru how many asylum seekers have been transferred to Australia for medical assistance since the last estimates? Mr Pezzullo: I am not sure that Ms Briscoe gave the evidence about since the last estimates. I think she has given the aggregate numbers who are here for medical support and, in the answer to Senator Hanson-Young, the numbers of those who have then been joined to the legal case. But I do not whether you have the flying total or the evolving total since October. Senator BILYK: If you want to take it on notice, can you give me a breakdown of how many were children, how many of the medical transfers were for instances of self-harm— Mr Pezzullo: Since the last estimates? Senator BILYK: yes—	90

Do we know that? Ms Briscoe: I do not have that. Mr Pezzullo: Again, I think we have taken that on notice in the context of the aggregate number, how long they have been here and what their conditions are. It might be best to now add the average length of stay as a subelement of that question. I think that is the best way to handle that. Senator BILYK: How much does it cost to transport detainees between Nauru and Australia for treatment? Mr Pezzullo: They are transferees; they are no longer detainees. I might see if Ms Briscoe has some information. Ms Briscoe: It will depend on the way in which they are transferred. I do not have the numbers for either, but there is air ambulance, if it is an emergency, or a regular charter. That charter could be being used for multiple purposes, so I do not have a figure for an individual. Senator BILYK: Are you able to work out a figure?	90

Is that the sort of intelligence that is collected? Mr Pezzullo: I would not characterise it as intelligence that is collected. Certainly, when persons are interviewed as to their claims, it is inevitably the case that matters of their living circumstances arise. As to how we catalogue that and how we, if you like, aggregate that data, I might just see if colleagues at the table can assist or other colleagues can come forward. The short answer is: yes, we might well have an awareness of their living circumstances simply because we have to interview them about their previous lives. Are you asking about things like housing and access to— CHAIR: I assume many of them would allege that they came from refugee camps somewhere in the Middle East. Mr Pezzullo: Some do, and some say that they have been living in remote areas, seeking to avoid other ethnic groups. That would give you a rough idea. The number of tests administered in the year to 31 December was 63,785. That represented 52,379 applicants, because some people sat the test a couple of times. Mr Wilden owns the policy and the regulation side, and processing time I think falls to Mr Williams's group. Ms Dacey: Senators, I have just had a look, and I do not have any stats on processing times for you. The average—and I will also provide this—is up in the $60,000 to $70,000 mark for the average 457, but I will have to confirm the exact number sitting on the minimum. Senator BILYK: Okay. I think most of my other questions in that area flow on, but I will ask them and you can tell me if you need to take them on notice. The July 2015 DIPB report shows working holiday visa applications fell by over 10,000 last year. Any idea why that might have been? Mr Williams: That is right. That is in a traditional working holiday area. Our view on that would probably be that it is because it is a little bit sensitive to the global economy. If the Australian economy is doing better than economies overseas, for people coming on a holiday this is quite an attractive visa because they can hedge their costs a little bit by knowing that they can work in Australia. Senator BILYK: Except that applications fell. Mr Williams: That is right—when the global economy improved after the global crisis. Some of the work and holiday visa categories—the smaller one that is more market specific—tend to be processed overseas closer to where the applicants are. They are often managed carefully because there can be a cap applied, so it is best handled out of the one office in the market concerned or in the country concerned. Senator BILYK: Are you able to tell me	106
